

Fact Sheet

Media Fast Facts

Company profile

Established in 1870, JB Kind has always operated in the timber sector, and in 1983 it began its door division. Now widely considered a leading specialist in wooden doors, JB Kind balances profitability with environmentalism, ensuring all of its wooden doors are procured from sustainable sources.

JB Kind's Door Collection offers its customers more than 200 innovative, classic and contemporary doors designs with nearly 50% of these holding the globally recognised FSC® (Forestry Stewardship Council) certification.

Celebrating more than 30 years as wooden door experts, JB Kind now has 46 employees and operates from its Head Office in Derbyshire, offering its expertise and products via a network of builders' merchants and door retailers across the UK to: home owners, self build/renovation specialists, builders, developers, architects and designers.

Expertise

Leading experts in wooden doors, JB Kind also provides specialist comment as well as comprehensive and up-to-date information on a wide range of related topics including:

- Interior design and doors
- Door finishes, door styles and glazing options
- Bespoke and made to measure doors
- Sustainable sourcing and environment-related certification standards
- Technical terms and phrases relating to doors
- Door care and maintenance
- Fire doors, UK & European fire standards and fire certification
- Door manufacture and procurement

Lead by Managing Director James Cadman, the Board offers decades of experience in the door industry, as well as the wider business arena. Click here for more information on JB Kind's Senior Team.

Media can also contact JB Kind's Marketing Manager, Tina Jones for more information, advice, images or an interview.

JB Kind provides a wealth of expert advice about doors on its website www.jbkind.com. This advice includes practical guides, articles and blogs.

Fact Sheet

Products & Services

- JB Kind's 2015 Collection has 29 door ranges and more than 200 door designs.
- JB Kind sells around ¼ million doors every year.
- The door designs complement a wide range of interiors, from classic and contemporary to innovative and unusual.
- At any point in time, JB Kind has over 60,000 doors in stock.
- JB Kind's wooden products are sourced from sustainable sources.
- Nearly 50% of JB Kind's doors benefit from FSC certification.
- JB Kind doors can be found across the UK in builders' merchants and specialist door retailers, as well as online.
- JB Kind releases its new brochure in January each year. In the 2015 there were 37 new styles, including an entirely new door family named Nuance and 14 new bi-fold doors.
- JB Kind has an extensive Door Showroom at its Head Office in Swadlincote, Derbyshire (managed on an appointment basis).
- Consumers can expect consistently high standards from JB Kind, as outlined in its Customer Charter. JB Kind's Customer Charter, which includes its Service Standards and Product Promises, is available on its website or by request.

Social responsibility

- JB Kind has main charitable efforts for 2015 will focus on the National Memorial Arboretum, the UK's Centre of Remembrance, in Staffordshire.
- Over the last few years JB Kind team members and their families have raised thousands of pounds for charities like the Derbyshire, Leicestershire and Rutland Air Ambulance and St Giles Hospice by undertaking fundraising activities including sky-diving from 13,000ft, holding our own Warehouse Olympics and hiking one of our wooden doors up to the top of Mount Snowdon!
- JB Kind believes it is important to develop its people through a strong programme of training and development. Its individual approach to development sets it apart from many of its competitors.
- JB Kind has a strong ongoing ethos of sustainability and sourcing products responsibly with nearly 50% of them benefitting from FSC certification.

